

Schema of Organic Certification

* Please note that inspections are required annually. Further, it is important that the findings at the inspection coincide with the information provided on the OSP. This is very important as certification is not possible in case of discrepancy/inconsistency.